	~_		_2
Award	-	1) Promption of St. Proline 2) Order Date Will in America
HUATI	6:- _	SUOP OF THINKS
ALUA	TĮON_	PLACE OBTAINED	2
ATE- O	F CO	DNTENT
VE (O	BTALL	NED DATE PREPARED_5 September 1955	2
FERE	NCES	S
GES_	(4. 1.41)	1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	English Management of Affiliation
EMARK	/C	This is UNEVALUATED Infor	mation
TMAKE	/>
-			in residencial collection according to the
			V 5 4 444
		-
			2
		n. K ^e inir in ing.
	1.	St. Foelten. On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from St. Foelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains f	rom
	E •	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from St Foelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains it was railroadman stated that no troop trains it was railroadman to 1955 on 19 August. Welk: On 18 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black ensulets with art	rom
	E •	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from St Foelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains f Yelk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August.	rom
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from Stroelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains it wilk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Malk: On 16 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black epaplets with art insignia and soldiers with re-bordered black epaplets and Soviet civili were observed at the Birago Kaserne in Malk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaplets practiced with 4 x 25 mm AT runs.	cillen-25X1
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from St Foelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains in Yelk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Malk: On 17 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black epaulets with art insignia and soldiers with re-bordered black epaulets and Soviet civili were observed at the Birago Kaserne in Malk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets practiced with 4 x 25-mm AT runs.	25X1
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from St Foelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains it less raised through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Malk: On 18 August 1955, officers wearing red fordered black epaulets with art insignia and soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets and Soviet civili were observed at the Birago Kaserne in Malk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets practiced with 2 x 85-mm AT Tuns.	25X1
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from St Foelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains in telk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Malk. On 18 August 1955, officers werring red tordered black epaulets with art insignia and soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets and Soviet civility were observed at the Birago Kaserne in Malk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black appulets practiced with 2 x 25 mm AT runs. Pauer Dehling. On 17 August 1955, about 60 vehicles were observed at the former Landest in Fauer Ochling. Soviet civilians were seen at the installation.	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from Stroelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains in Yelk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Nelk: On 12 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black epaplets with art insignia and soldiers with re-bordered black epaplets and Soviet civility were observed at the Birago Kaperne in Melk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaplets practiced with 4 x 25-mm AT runs. Tauer Debring: On 17 August 1955, about 60 vehicles were observed at the former Landest in Fruer Ochling. Soviet civilians were seen at the installation. Urfair: On 16 August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the Faserne northeast of Briefer. One of the sheds was dismantled. Soviet civil	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from Stroelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains in Yelk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Nelk: On 12 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black epaplets with art insignia and soldiers with re-bordered black epaplets and Soviet civility were observed at the Birago Kaperne in Melk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaplets practiced with 4 x 25-mm AT runs. Tauer Debring: On 17 August 1955, about 60 vehicles were observed at the former Landest in Fruer Ochling. Soviet civilians were seen at the installation. Urfair: On 16 August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the Faserne northeast of Briefer. One of the sheds was dismantled. Soviet civil	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from Stroelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains in Yelk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Nelk: On 12 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black epaplets with art insignia and soldiers with re-bordered black epaplets and Soviet civility were observed at the Birago Kaperne in Melk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaplets practiced with 4 x 25-mm AT runs. Tauer Debring: On 17 August 1955, about 60 vehicles were observed at the former Landest in Fruer Ochling. Soviet civilians were seen at the installation. Urfair: On 16 August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the Faserne northeast of Briefer. One of the sheds was dismantled. Soviet civil	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from Stroelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains in Yelk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Nelk: On 12 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black epaplets with art insignia and soldiers with re-bordered black epaplets and Soviet civility were observed at the Birago Kaperne in Melk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaplets practiced with 4 x 25-mm AT runs. Tauer Debring: On 17 August 1955, about 60 vehicles were observed at the former Landest in Fruer Ochling. Soviet civilians were seen at the installation. Urfair: On 16 August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the Faserne northeast of Briefer. One of the sheds was dismantled. Soviet civil	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from Stroelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains in Yelk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Nelk: On 12 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black epaplets with art insignia and soldiers with re-bordered black epaplets and Soviet civility were observed at the Birago Kaperne in Melk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaplets practiced with 4 x 25-mm AT runs. Tauer Debring: On 17 August 1955, about 60 vehicles were observed at the former Landest in Fruer Ochling. Soviet civilians were seen at the installation. Urfair: On 16 August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the Faserne northeast of Briefer. One of the sheds was dismantled. Soviet civil	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 1011anstalt
	2.	On 22 and 23 August 1955, the departure of Soviet troops by rail from Stroelten was in full serving. A railroadman stated that no troop trains in Yelk rassed through St. Foelten up to 1955 on 19 August. Nelk: On 12 August 1955, officers wearing red-tordered black epaplets with art insignia and soldiers with re-bordered black epaplets and Soviet civility were observed at the Birago Kaperne in Melk. About 40 soldiers with red-bordered black epaplets practiced with 4 x 25-mm AT runs. Tauer Debring: On 17 August 1955, about 60 vehicles were observed at the former Landest in Fruer Ochling. Soviet civilians were seen at the installation. Urfair: On 16 August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the August 1955, about 60 vehicles atood under lean-to sheds at the Faserne northeast of Briefer. One of the sheds was dismantled. Soviet civil	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1